Welcome to our made to order range of brand merchandise

We've created this range to run alongside our existing in-stock merchandise. The big advantage of having two ranges is more choice of beautifully branded items.

Items that can increase our brand visibility, creating recognition and familiarity. Items that when carefully selected with our target audience in mind can be a powerful form of targeted advertising, helping us to build our brand.

Physical items that are held and used create connection points. Choosing items that align with our target audience's interests, preferences or even lifestyle can help us to create a long-lasting positive impression with our merchandise offerings.

Both ranges have been thoughtfully designed to complement each other. So that items can sit side-by-side on your event stand for example and feel part of the same set.

We've carefully considered the materials our items are made from with sustainability top of mind. We've also considered the supply and distribution chain so that you can be confident your orders are more responsible.

Plus there's a few bespoke items for internal events and external recruitment fairs too.

If there's something specific you have in mind that's just not here, let us know and we'll work with you to find something that fits the bill.

One thing to bear in mind is that our made to order range lead-times are a little longer. So if you like the look of something in here, get ready to place your order around three weeks' in advance of when you need it.

Happy browsing...
